

JAPAN TO STAY IN MANCHURIA, POWERS TOLD

Will Yield Other Claims in China.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30.—(Special.)—That Japan has no intention of withdrawing from Manchuria was disclosed today at the sessions of the conference committee on far eastern questions. In response to China's proposal that all foreign troops be withdrawn from China, Masanao Hanjira, of the Japanese delegation, stated that Japan is ready to agree upon conditions for withdrawal of forces from those parts of China, exclusive of Manchuria, in which they are now stationed.

In Manchuria, however, Japan insists upon the retention of Japanese soldiers and police and Mr. Hanjira defended the attitude of his government in this particular at length. That Japan will refuse to yield and will retain her control in Manchuria while compromising on other Chinese questions is now regarded as a foregone conclusion.

Troops Needed Against Bandits. Mr. Hanjira said that the maintenance of Japanese troops along the South Manchuria railway is recognized by China under the treaty of Peking of 1905 and continued:

"It is a measure of absolute necessity under the existing state of affairs in Manchuria—a region which has been made notorious by the activity of mounted bandits. Even with the presence of Japanese troops those bandits have made repeated attempts to raid the railway zone."

The withdrawal of railway guards from the zone of the South Manchuria railway will leave those districts at the mercy of bandits, and the same conditions of threat will there prevail as in remote corners of Manchuria. The Japanese delegate stated that these Japanese troops would be withdrawn from Shantung when China was able to protect the railway from Hanjira and when China restores order there, and from north China, when foreign garrisons are stationed under the Bester protocol, when the powers agree conditions warrant it. The Japanese troops along the Chinese Eastern railway in Siberia, he said, would be withdrawn "as soon as the evacuation of Siberia by the Japanese troops is effected."

Hanjira's Statement.

Mr. Hanjira's defense of the maintenance of Japanese police in Manchuria was:

1. That such police do not interfere with Chinese or other foreign nationals. Their functions are strictly confined to the protection and control of Japanese subjects.

2. That the most important duties which the Japanese police are charged are, first, to prevent the commission of crimes by Japanese, and second, to find and prosecute Japanese criminals when crimes are committed.

"Without the full cooperation of the Japanese police," he said, "the punishment of crime is, in a great many cases, an impossibility. In places where the Japanese police are stationed there are far fewer criminal cases among Japanese than in places without Japanese police. Lawless elements constantly move to districts beyond the reach of Japanese police supervision."

BEGINNING TO PAY THE PENALTY

Harvey W. Church was put on trial for murder yesterday in Judge Caverly's court. The above picture, taken as he was in the custody of Bailiff A. Mooss, seated behind him, gives an idea of the collapse that has taken place since the time when he jauntily confessed killing two men to obtain an automobile.

COURT CONVENES AT DEATH SCENE IN BURCH TRIAL

Session at Bungalow of Kennedy.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 30.—At a roadside inn, Beverly Glen, only a short distance from the point where J. Belton Kennedy fell dead Aug. 5 last, from a shotgun wound, Arthur C. Burch today faced the jury which is trying him on a charge of murdering Kennedy.

Judge Reeve convened court in regular session in a roadway in front of the Kennedy summer cottage where the tragedy occurred, and Frank W. Stoddard, deputy county surveyor, continued testimony begun at the Los Angeles hall of justice, fifteen miles away, about topographical points connected with the case. The district attorney pointed out spots concerning which he said testimony would be offered later.

See Death Step and Bushes

The jurors saw a cottage perched upon a steep hillside twenty feet or more above the roadway, and a flight of a dozen steps leading up to it. On the fifth step from the road was a dark red stain which it had been testified marked the place where Kennedy was found dead. Clumps of sycamores and poison oak trees and briars were on either side of the steps, and from one of these, the district attorney said, the state expects to show a shot was fired which caused Kennedy's death.

Says Death Was Instantaneous

The party then returned to the hall of justice, where adjournment was taken until tomorrow morning.

Witnesses at the morning session included the elder Kennedy, County Autopsy Surgeon A. F. Wagner, W. M. Brothel, undertaker, and Raymond Sagar, photographer.

Brother, who found the body of

In contrast to his broken appearance in the courtroom yesterday Church is shown here as he was when arrested. He rarely smiled, his humor taking a surliness turn. When this picture was taken Church was defiant and physically aggressive.

Kennedy, identified two wads from a shotgun shell and a single small shot, such as fired by a shot gun, taken from the body, he said. The shot came from the wound on the left side of the neck just below and a little behind the left ear, and there, too, was sticking one of the wads. The second was in the wound.

Wagner described Kennedy's wound as of such nature that death was instantaneous. The spinal cord was severed—it "was minced," the witness said. Madelyn Obenchain has been quoted by the police as saying Kennedy spoke to her after he was shot.

The Penalty

"The People of the State of Illinois versus Harvey W. Church. . . . The bailiff droned on through the arraignment, but the people in the crowded courtroom of Judge John R. Caverly had eyes and ears only for the figure of the youth, slumped down in the cane-bottomed chair, his coat and trousers ragged, dirty, misshapen; long dirty locks of his black hair, uncut for weeks, partly concealing his eyes, set and glassy as he stared, seemingly at something that hypnotized him, at the floor between his nondescript shoes."

A short black beard could not hide the deep lines on his face nor the grime of the cell.

His lawyers were trying to pick a jury to try him for the murder, with a baseball bat and an ax, of Bernard J. Daugherty and Carl Ausmus, Packard automobile salesmen. He wanted their car so that he might "show off" the state charges.

But the boy who had entered the prison barely a few weeks ago, boasting that he would soon be free, is "paying the penalty." And his eyes, with their haggard, mesmerized stare, never left the floor, while photographers "boomed" their flashlights, horror seekers whispered, lawyers wrangled, venemen assigned to be excused, and, finally, court was adjourned without a jury being accepted.

He was led away, stumbling, shuffling. . . . An attorney for the defense indicated that the plea will be that the confession was obtained by the police through beatings and coercion.

They also asked prospective jurors men about dementia praecox, neurasthenia, and hebephrenia, indicating the possibility of a plea of insanity.

STRAINS A RIBBON. John Forsyth of 3733 South Lincoln street was held to the grand jury yesterday on the charge of stealing a ribbon, a baby picture and $200 worth of jewelry.

ARBuckle MAY. KNOW HIS FATE LATE TONIGHT

Closing Arguments Limited to Four Hours.

BY EDWARD DOHERTY.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 30.—(Special.)—There is a possibility that the case against Roscoe Arbuckle will go to the jury tomorrow evening.

Both sides are through except for the rebuttal testimony of two physicians called by the state and the report of the medical commission appointed to examine the body of Miss Virginia Rappe.

Gavin McNab, chief of the defense counsel, asserted that he was ready to give his case to the jury "right now" without making the final address to the jury. The state, however, felt it should make a statement summing up its case. The court felt each side should be limited to four hours, and both sides agreed to this.

Defense May Not Speak.

"We may not make any statement," said McNab, "and we may make a short talk. It depends on what the state has to say. I do not believe, however, that any one will talk for the defense except myself. However, I will not know definitely until I hear the prosecution's arguments."

Mrs. Lula Corey, attendant at the bath house in Wheeler Hot Springs, was the last witness. She corroborated the testimony of Mrs. Minnie Neighbors, whom District Attorney Matthew Brady had arrested on a charge of perjury.

She declared she remembered Miss Rappe because she rented a bathing cap to her and took her name and one dollar deposit, and because Mrs. Neighbors told her about Miss Rappe.

Saw Her in Bathing Suit. She remembered seeing the actress in a bathing suit and in a khaki hiking suit. She identified pictures of Miss Rappe, but could not remember any other person who was at the bath house that day.

"Possibly I could have remembered," she explained, "if any of them had met with an accident, as Miss Rappe did." This testimony, which corroborates that of Mrs. Kate Harbeck and Mrs. Mary Polyn, Mrs. Harbeck, former housekeeper for Miss Rappe, declared that during the month of August Miss Rappe was home every day.

Mrs. Neighbors was arrested last night at her hotel and released on bail. Attorneys appeared in her behalf this morning when she was arraigned before Judge L. T. Jacks and had her case postponed until Friday.

DECIDE TO KEEP OLD PROHIBITION PARTY 'KICKING'

The Prohibition party is to exist as a political entity, and will nominate candidates for President and Vice President in the elections in 1924 where it lives legally. This was determined last night by the party's national committee in its final session at the Great Northern hotel.

Virgil G. Hinshaw remains chairman of the organization. The party platform for 1924 will be one of law enforcement. The policy, in substance, is to be that both old parties dodged the prohibition issue.

U. S. VOTE MAY LIFT GERMANY'S WAR DEBT LOAD

Col. Logan Holds Key to Moratorium.

BY GEORGE SELDES.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

BERLIN, Nov. 30.—The plans for a moratorium for Germany's huge reparations debt are now materializing in London. There is the most intense interest in Berlin in the series of conferences between leading German financiers and statesmen with the British. The stock exchange is already reacting on the possibility of relief being obtained for Germany.

As the moratorium plans take shape the position of the American member of the commission becomes more important. It is known that Lord D'Abernon, the British ambassador to Berlin, and Sir John Bradbury, the British member of the reparations commission, favor the moratorium. The French delegate on the commission, M. Dubois, opposed suggestions for a moratorium at the Berlin conference.

With continued French opposition in the commission, which is empowered to grant a moratorium, the decision is likely to fall to Col. Logan, the American member.

Expected U. S. Pressure.

In commenting on the possibility of a moratorium the well informed newspaper, the Frankfurter Zeitung, says the United States will exert influence on France to let Germany pay its reparations bill in reconstructions instead of gold.

From reliable sources it is said that Prime Minister Lloyd George gave Hugo Stinnes a memorandum from the British Industrialists' association in which he strongly disapproved of Stinnes' plan to take over the German railroads in exchange for credits for the government.

Push Moratorium Plans.

(Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.)

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Dr. Walther Rathenau had a conference again with Sir Robert Horne, the chancellor of the exchequer, and with treasury officials this afternoon. The cabinet was forced to postpone its proposed meeting to discuss the moratorium, because of the Irish situation.

There is no longer any attempt made here to conceal the fact that Dr. Rathenau is an emissary of the German government. He has not yet seen Prime Minister Lloyd George, who is awaiting a full report regarding Germany's position—first, whether it is unable to pay, and second, if it can pay a part. If Germany can pay a part, the prime minister wants to know how far it would be willing to accept allied control and advice in reorganizing its finances if a moratorium is granted.

On a basis of the facts so far obtained it is believed that Germany will be able to pay the January installment, but no more for a couple of years. Mr. Lloyd George's task will be to convince the French that Germany is not able to pay and that it is to the French interest to help Germany to reestablish its solvency. For this purpose he will seek an interview with Premier Briand immediately upon the French leader's arrival in Paris.

BALFOUR CALLED UNFAIR TO U. S. ON SUBMARINES

BY GEN. HENRY REILLY.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30.—(Special.)—The proposal by Mr. Balfour to limit submarine tonnage and to prohibit submarines of the large type would deprive America of an economical means of balancing its fleet by utilizing submarines for scouting.

GEN. HENRY J. REILLY.

It would further reduce the effort we could make in a war against commerce, since our great lack of overseas bases prevents the effective use by us of any other class of vessel except large submarines in distant commerce raiding; while on the other hand, the numerous bases available to the British navy enable her to use either cruisers or small short range submarines.

The contention that the example of German ruthlessness constitutes sufficient reason to abolish submarines does not apply in the case of large submarines, the kind we need most; because the unhandiness of large submarines forbids their close approach to a ship without warning; and requires the use of guns as the primary weapon for commercial warfare; thus placing the large submarine on the same basis as cruisers, insofar as ruthlessness is concerned.

The Hughes plan, prescribed a limit of only 50,000 tons of submarine tonnage for Great Britain and ourselves, and 54,000 tons for Japan; as compared with about five times that limit for destroyers and cruisers, and six times that limit for capital ships.

The earlier submarines were quite small, so that on a 50,000 ton limit several hundred might be built; but such small craft are of little use nowadays.

Modern Requirements
Modern requirements call for a minimum of about 1,000 tons. The tendency is to increase this and many of the later submarines are as large as 2,000 tons; so that a 50,000 ton limit would probably mean about sixty submarines for our navy.

Sixty submarines would not be an excessive number. The Germans started the war with about thirty. When they had increased to sixty they still had an insufficient force to even approximate an effective submarine campaign; notwithstanding the favorable conditions.

With 150 submarines the Germans could keep only thirty constantly at sea owing to the special needs of this type of craft for fresh personnel and supplies, and for repairs. To make their submarine campaign effective the Germans needed about 200 submarines, even when specially favored by the factors of short distances, protected waters, shallow depths and dense maritime traffic; conditions which rarely will be repeated in any great naval war.

Hughes' Proposals Normal
The very opposite conditions are normal, and under them Mr. Hughes' limit of about sixty submarines is moderate. It hardly could be reduced without depriving a fleet of the benefits to be derived in a perfectly humane and legitimate way from this craft.

The American navy is in particular need of submarines for scouting. Relatively, Great Britain and Japan have many more cruisers. For some reason, although providing battleships and destroyers, had always been niggardly in appropriations for cruisers. Without adequate and timely information a strong fleet may be powerless against an opponent fully informed.

Today we have no modern cruisers whatever in commission. A few are building but not enough to supply our needs in war. Our only alternative would be to utilize the few merchant liners available, divert some destroyers to short range scouting work, and depend upon our submarines for the principal burden of scouting.

In some respects the submarine is superior even to the cruiser in ability to get information. The cruiser is faster, more self-sustaining, and better able to keep the sea for long periods. But in the face of stronger force it must give way and perhaps fall in its quest; whereas the submarine, through submergence, can go safely to close quarters.

MRS. EDITH GOULD WINS FIRST STEP IN COURT BATTLE

New York, Nov. 30.—Mrs. Edith Kelly Gould today won the first step in the legal proceedings against Frank J. Gould in this country as a result of the divorce he obtained against her in France about a year ago.

Supreme Court Justice Guy signed an order granting her $5,000 counsel fees for purposes of prosecuting her appeal from a decision dismissing her suit for separation from Mr. Gould.

It had been her contention that she is still the wife of Mr. Gould, on the ground that the decree of the French court was not operative in this country.

Justice Guy said that the question was of so novel a character that he would grant a reasonable allowance for purposes of appeal.

RUSSIA ASKS TO TRADE FURS FOR WHEAT OF U.S.

Christensen Tells of Talk with Lenin.

BY DONALD DAY.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
[Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]
RIGA, Nov. 30.—Following two interviews with Nikolai Lenin, the premier of Russia, both coming at the close of a month's stay in Moscow, Parley P. Christensen, former candidate of the Farmer-Labor party for President, who arrived in Riga today from Moscow, expressed himself as optimistic over the immediate future of Russia.

Lenin, according to Mr. Christensen, discussed America's international relations and the probability of a "capitalistic" war between Japan and America, the disarmament conference, and the need for additional famine relief.

Mr. Christensen said the soviet premier spoke English and appeared to be in the best of health. He spoke cordially regarding the probability of American-Russian business relations.

Mr. Christensen's final interview with Lenin was last Monday, when he was photographed with the premier at Lenin's request. Lenin asked Mr. Christensen a permission to attach the following footnote to the picture:

"Lenin discussing with P. P. Christensen, the representative of the Farmer-Labor party of America, the sending of wheat to the famine stricken, the probability of the next capitalist war being between Japan and America, the American disarmament conference and Mr. Christensen's telegram last year to the British Labor party lauding their nonintervention stand regarding Russia."

Asks About U. S.-Jap War

Mr. Christensen said Lenin's first question to him was:

"What about a war between the United States and Japan?"

"I said that I did not look for a war, to which he replied that there was bound to be a capitalist war, as that was the best industry of capitalism and that is the kind of government we have in America. I answered that I did not think there was a possibility of war and while I had not been in Japan still there are friendly relations between the American and Japanese peoples and governments. Lenin then reiterated his belief that war was bound to come and that one was brewing now."

Offers Furs for Wheat.

"Asking him regarding the probability of the disarmament conference, Lenin said he did not look for much results, only, perhaps, a suspension of an alliance. He said he did not believe there would be a Japanese-American-English alliance."

AMERICA HALTS JAPS' 70 PER CENT WITH 1924 OFFER

BY CHARLES DAILEY.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

[Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]

TOKIO, Nov. 30.—The frantic campaign now being waged in the Japanese press is manufactured by the navy department for the purpose of being able to show America that there is a popular demand for a higher naval ratio. But the real object of this inspired demonstration, which includes public meetings, is to save the Mutsu, which is to be commissioned on Thursday. This vessel, costing $6,000,000 yen (normally about $40,000,000), is the pride of the Japanese people, who regard throwing away the fleet's queen as a loss to their naval prestige.

Therefore the navy is playing hard for a sentimental and psychological effect. So far they have not been able to impress Americans that the campaign was not manufactured like the Shantung propaganda. They were shocked when news was received from Washington that Secretary Hughes insists on the scrapping of the Mutsu.

Expected a "Compromise."

The best opinion has been that there would be a compromise on the 70 per cent demand, allowing the retention of the Mutsu and possible other gains, so the news caused gloom. Virtually identical articles appearing in the Jiji, Kokumin and Koshi say that America countered Admiral Kato's proposal with a demand which would reduce Japan to a 45 from a 60 per cent ratio by suggesting an additional three years' construction, thus adding to America's credit fifteen ships against four for Japan. The articles go on to say that it will be impossible for Japan to accept such a proposal, so it is useless to continue the discussions unless Japan is met in a spirit of compromise.

The Asahi says unless Japan's proposal or a compromise is effected the conference cannot avoid reaching a deadlock. The Nichi Nichi says that Admiral Kato asked for final instructions before his latest interview with Secretary Hughes.

Try to Offset Warren Talk.

Ambassador Warren, in his speech at Yokohama last Wednesday, warned that if Japan rejects the 60 per cent ratio which is now offered by Secretary Hughes, then Japan, being excelled in resources by America, must witness a steady decline in the ratio each year that unrestricted construction continues. It was to counteract this speech that the present desperate propaganda campaign was launched.

The Japanese argue that if America completes its present program in 1924, and Japan continues its until 1928, as now planned, Japan would have a 76 per cent ratio in capital ships and an 83 per cent ratio in tonnage. However, against this effort to arouse the Japanese people is the business delegation now in America, the members being actual taxpayers who are bringing pressure to bear for the acceptance of Secretary Hughes' proposals.

Japan's exception to the resolution of nine of the powers to abandon their postoffices in China after thirteen months until the delegates could refer to Tokio is believed to be due to the desire to know if this affects Manchuria, again bringing up the question, What is China?

Illinois Central System Points to Its Leadership in Passenger Service

The existence of a railway system is justified by its ability to serve the public with transportation. The measure of its service is the measure of its worth. As one example of its high standing, the Illinois Central System invites the attention of the public to those things which are indicative of its capacity for efficient passenger transportation service.

Much depends upon personnel. As an organization the Illinois Central System is composed of a body of 60,000 faithful and efficient workers. Its officers have advanced through the ranks of the service, thus acquiring the practical experience for intelligent supervision. The efforts of the organization are concentrated on making the Illinois Central System, in point of service, the outstanding railway system in the United States; and that means in the world, for American railroads have long held, and continue to hold, the leadership of the world in efficient transportation service.

Much depends upon equipment. Up-to-date and well-maintained equipment is the first essential to passenger service of the high type which the Illinois Central System strives to give at all times. For years the Illinois Central System has been a leader among the railway systems in adding to its equipment, keeping its equipment well maintained and developing its roadway facilities.

The Illinois Central System is a leader in the amount of steel passenger equipment in use. Sixty per cent of the passenger cars on the Illinois Central System are of all-steel or steel-underframe construction. Steel cars are expensive, but they are a generally recognized factor for the safety and comfort of passengers.

The latest figures available show the percentage of all-steel and steel-underframe passenger cars in service on the railroads of the country as a whole to be less than 39 per cent.

The passenger on the Illinois Central System is assured of a safe, comfortable trip in a car of good construction and modern convenience, over a smooth-riding track of heavy rail and ties, fully ballasted and well maintained, hauled by a locomotive of sufficient power and in such a condition of maintenance as to give every reasonable assurance of scheduled movement.

For the most part, each locomotive is regularly assigned to the same engineer, who takes a personal pride in its condition. This is believed to be one of the reasons for the small number of engine failures on the Illinois Central System, a record which is outstanding among the railroads of the country.

The regularity with which Illinois Central System passenger trains maintain their schedules indicates the high order of our passenger service. The percentage of passenger trains maintaining schedule, by months, for 1920 and the current year to November follows:

	1920	1921
January	93.4	97.8
February	96.4	98.5
March	94.0	98.3
April	93.4	98.5
May	94.2	99.2
June	96.4	99.1
July	96.9	99.1
August	96.8	99.1
September	96.7	98.6
October	97.3	98.1
November	93.8	...
Average	95.5	98.6

The patrons of the Illinois Central System find courteous and sympathetic attention in every department. Employees take great pride in our reputation for courtesy.

Service is now the only basis of competition among the railroads. Since rates are standardized, the Illinois Central System cannot offer rate bargains to command patronage, but it can offer—and it is constantly developing—the organization, equipment and facilities for unusual service.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

C. H. MARKHAM,
President, Illinois Central System.

THE CHILDREN AND GEORGE WASHINGTON

More Entries in the Race for $11,650 in The Tribune's Prizes for School Children and Teachers.

These are essays of 250 words or less on George Washington, written by boys and girls of Chicago, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, and Wisconsin. The contest closes on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22. Prizes for children range from $2,500 down to $100; for teachers in whose classes winning children study, from $250 to $100. Address "Essays," The Chicago Tribune, 7 South Dearborn street.

Gave Us Our Freedom.

George Washington, of whom we school children read in history as "the father of our country," left us a record which causes us to appreciate the glorious land in which we live—the best country on the globe, in our geography, or as we may see it with our own eyes, even if viewing from no farther than the town or state in which we live.

He fought for freedom on the principle that the United States was a land whose privileges were worth upholding, and he victoriously led our army in those days when most men were called to uphold our country's rights.

George Washington—the man, the soldier, our first President—is eulogized by all of us, for he knows the hardships of our early settlers and culminated their efforts with his wisdom, which gave us a country of which I am proud.

IRMA ENGEL,
Frederick street, Watertown, Wis.
Lincoln school, age 12.
Teacher, Miss Edna East.

Held Honor High.

When any real American hears the name of George Washington spoken, he immediately associates that name with honor. Why?

All patriotic Americans know, or ought to know the story of George Washington and the cherry tree. He chopped down the cherry tree with his new hatchet and he admitted this to his father, when he was asked about it because he valued his honor, as a boy, enough, so that he took the punishment meted out to him rather than his life and honor with an untruth.

This honor grew with him and, I believe, influenced him in all of his actions when as the leader of our esteemed forefathers he, by his skill, outgeneraled the best generals our foes had. Why when he saw the way matters were going during that dark period of the war didn't he forget his oath of office as a general and take the offer of money, glory in other countries, and fame that he received from our foes in return for which he would turn traitor to his country and her cause?

It was his honor, that honor which as a boy he had held dear, that forbade his doing so.

All Americans, boy, girl, man, or woman should take George Washington as an example in everything that is good, and most of all in honor.

HENRY A. KOEHLER,
4094 North Major avenue, Chicago.
Carl Schurz high school, age 16.
Teacher, Miss Bergquist.

An Example for Today.

George Washington was our first President, which of course every one knows. He was the President who won the hearts of all the people by his good deeds and kind heart.

Every one knows, or ought to know, the date our first great President was born and the sad day when he died. He was born Feb. 22, 1732, and died in the year 1799. His death was very sad, but God said, "Man shall live once and then die."

George Washington, whose name we all honor, made the best he could of everything he handled. He was a very good President and, indeed, very kind to all his people who loved and admired him very much. His work, which might have been a drudge to other people, was a pleasure to him, and was also done faithfully since the time he was a boy.

To say that he himself chopped the cherry tree when he might have blamed some other poor boy, like the children do this very day, should be proof enough that our dear President, whom everybody loved, was honest. To live without telling a lie, or without quarreling and the many other bad habits which the people of today use almost without thinking, ought to give us a hint of the honest, happy, and also troublesome life George Washington led.

CECELIA HABIT,
Fond du Lac high school, age 16.
English teacher, Miss Collins.

Was Ideal American.

The American policy of today seems to be contrary to the policy of Washington, which he outlined in his farewell address. In this address he urged the American people to keep out of European entanglements; he warned the people to shun the evils of partisanship at home.

Both his first inaugural address and farewell address bring out the character of this great man. His inaugural address shows his honesty and patriotic devotion to his country. He declined any pecuniary compensations for any work which he performed for the United States beyond what was actually expended.

He never heard the voice of his country but with veneration and love. What a fine country America would be to live in if every one felt the same!

Washington, it may be said, was the ideal American. His services in the revolution were of an indispensable nature, and he ranks among the greatest of world generals. There was probably no general at that time who could have handled the armies in such an efficient manner. His sufferings with the army at Valley Forge showed that he was ready to endure any privation for the sake of his country.

His early life portrayed his future. His killing of the cat, the talk with his mother, his leadership among his playmates, his journey to Fort Duquesne, all showed that he was destined to become a great leader of the people and one of the country's best statesmen and patriots.

BOOZE PIRATES OF BALTIC

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 10.—Rum running into Sweden and Finland from Germany has developed into a public scandal, says Swedish newspapers. The craft engaged in this trade are generally small, fast sailing schooners, captained as a rule by ex-officers of the imperial German navy. Many of the skippers are well known in the records of submarine activity. Their daring and experience makes it very difficult for Swedish coast guards to stop them.

From Reval, Rostock, Stettin, Lubeck and other German ports these vessels put to sea, their cargo always consigned, according to the ship's papers, to some Finnish port. Once among the rocky archipelago of eastern Sweden, the cargo is landed piecemeal after nightfall on the rocks, from which it is later removed by accomplices ashore who have a widely ramified organization for the distribution of the goods.

Cummings, Chicago, wealthy contractor, charged with extorting thousands of dollars from Mecho Dervos on the municipal street lighting project, was granted a continuance to Dec. 8 after sensational accusations by District Attorney W. GROVE MOVES TO SPEED GRAFT AND MERIT QUIZ

Names J. B. Fleming to Aid in Building Cases.

Vigorous prosecution of two large groups of alleged violators of the Illinois graft law seemed assured yesterday by action taken in two matters pending in the Criminal court.

Upon the petition of Russell Whitman of the Civil Service Reform association, with the approval of State's Attorney Joseph B. Fleming, Judge A. L. McKinley ordered the impaneling next Tuesday of a special jury for the sole purpose of investigating civil service abuses of which the Lundin-Thompson machine is accused.

In the other matter State's Attorney Fleming appointed Joseph B. Fleming, counsel for the Dailey commission, as a special assistant to aid in the prosecution of the scores of cases resulting from the commission's inquiry into the building industry.

Northrup and Haber to Aid.
Mr. Grove already had appointed John E. Northrup and Edwin J. Haber as special assistants in the labor cases. They both have had experience in similar prosecutions under former state attorneys, and with the addition of Mr. Fleming, Mr. Grove believes he has organized the best special staff available for this work. Mr. Fleming is a former assistant United States district attorney and is a member of the law firm of McCormick, Kirkland, Patterson & Fleming.

The state's attorney did not take any position publicly when the Whitman petition for a new special grand jury to replace the vote fraud panel, which had completed its work, was presented. It is understood, however, that Assistant State's Attorney George E. Gorman, who will have charge of the new body, is prepared to make the merit inquiry thorough and drastic.

To Sift River View Tickets.
Probably the first matter to be taken up will be the repeated charges that the Lundin-Thompson machine forced civil service employees in the city hall to purchase tickets for its "Republican Jubilee" at River View park last summer in proportion to their salaries and that they also were compelled to subscribe to the Republican, a weekly organ owned by its forces and used to spread its propaganda.

It also is predicted that the new jury will delve into the mysterious successes of political favorites in civil service examinations and the large number of "temporary" employees, some of whom have been on the pay roll for three or four years.

The vote fraud jury complimented Judge Rightmeyer and the election commissioners for honesty and efficiency, and beyond pointing out bad conditions in two precincts, criticized the election machinery only in a general way.

ENGLAND PLEADS THAT ITS CANDOR MAKE NO FOES

Friend of France, U.S.,
Despite Curzon.

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.)
LONDON, Nov. 30.—"England does not desire to quarrel with France at

EARL CURZON.

Washington. If she did, it would be suicidal, for we know that it would mean quarreling with the United States. American dislike and suspicion of England is of long standing, and friendship for England is of recent growth. The historic friendship for France is of long standing, and if there is any danger like it is recent and confined to a few Americans."

This statement was made today by a high official in the British foreign office whom I asked for an explanation of the recent strange developments of British policy at Washington and elsewhere which leads many Americans to believe that Great Britain is insincere in its professed desire for the success of the conference and that it is gradually assuming an anti-French orientation.

Explains Curzon Speech.
"Lord Curzon's recent speech regarding the Angora agreement seems to have been misunderstood," he continued. "Any one familiar with the facts knows Lord Curzon's mind and that his speech was directed at the east rather than at the west. His admonition to France was that of a man who disagrees with the course a friend is taking and tells him so plainly."

"It is true that we have differences with France, but they are the differences of friends. We are trying to clear them away by frank talk. It is said that the Americans do not understand England's objection to the French submarine problem while retaining its enormous navy. My reply is that a complaint ought to be made by Secretary Hughes. We have accepted his program, and it is only a matter of retaining the ratio laid down by him. We object to the submarine because it is the weapon of an aggressive power like Germany, and the creation of a great submarine fleet by one only compels the other nations to build up anti-submarine armaments."

"It also has been suggested to me that England had something to do with stirring up the Italian anti-French riots. That is absurd, for the original report which caused the Italian anger came from a French source. "With regard to the Anglo-Japanese treaty my own feelings are that it will be superseded soon by something satisfactory to all three powers. It has no real reason for existence and the Japanese themselves, who are the most realistic people in the world, will not want it to continue. As a matter of fact, it does not loom nearly so large in the minds of responsible people as in the minds of the public of all three countries."

GAS RATE WILL BE CUT; SIZE OF SLASH PROBLEM

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

The gas rate in Chicago will be cut by the Illinois commerce commission, which began its hearing of the subject yesterday. The only question is, how much?

An estimate now is impossible, a guess would be wild, but that there will be a reduction is as certain as any future event. The primary rate in 1917 was 76 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of gas. Now it is $1.16, an increase of 45 cents, or 64.28 per cent. The surface car fare went up from 5 to 8 cents a ride, or 60 per cent.

A week ago the commission reduced the car fare from 8 to 5 cents—the previous figure. The companies then obtained a federal court injunction, and it will be argued on its merits next Friday. The outcome of that proceeding will undoubtedly have its influence upon the commission in reducing the gas rate.

Gas Company Begins Fight.

The gas company started yesterday "to show cause why its rates should not be reduced." It frankly said that it is now earning at the rate of 7.5 per cent. The old utilities commission had ruled that 7 1/2 per cent return is fair and reasonable.

The defense of the company is that it earned and paid 8 per cent dividends until 1918 and since has neither earned nor paid anything. In that period its income was $73,207,424 and its expenditures were $66,497,813, leaving a balance of $6,709,611. On the basis of a return of 7 1/2 per cent the company reckons that it should have received a return of $18,818,985 in that period, leaving unearned dividends of $12,109,374. The company contends its rates cannot be legally reduced until this $12,109,374 has been retrieved.

Surface Lines' Precedent.

In the case of the surface lines the commerce commission reckoned the car companies were making a return of 9 per cent. The valuation of the surface lines was about $160,000,000 and the earnings for the year ending July 21, 1921, were $14,437,455. Of course the company did not get it all. Part of it went to the city, leaving the company a net return of less than 6 1/2 per cent.

But the commission figured that the return was 9 per cent and reduced it to 6 per cent. The commission in the first day gave no indication regarding their intentions on the rate of return to the gas company, but the commission is in a position where a cut in the return would be no surprise.

George Cooke, attorney for the gas company, bluntly told the commission that if there is a revision of rates he wants a tertiary rate as well as a primary and secondary rate.

Pleas Increase in Taxes.

Increases in taxes is one of the reasons pleaded by the company against a rate reduction. One exhibit shows that the company paid $858,979 in taxes in 1919, $818,212 in 1920, $819,829 in 1921, and expected to pay $1,740,000 in 1922. Part of this is due to paying of income tax on dividends and part to the increases in taxes which were permitted by the last legislature.

On a gas bill these figures have a vivid significance. On each gas bill for 1,000 feet last year the gas consumer paid 2.81 cents taxes, while this year he is paying 6.54 cents. Yet some renters contend that they do not pay taxes.

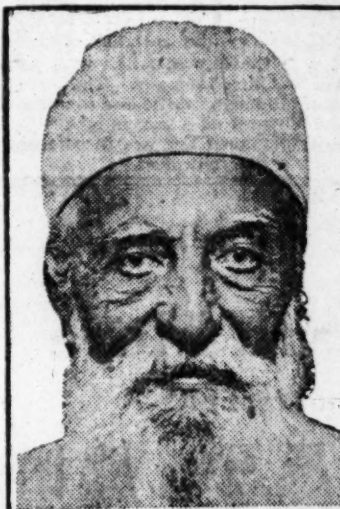

Consumer Pays the Tax.

Attorney Cooke told the commission the company has more than 700,000 gas users. They will average monthly gas bills this year of about $3.76. In each of those bills will be approximately 18 1/2 cents for taxes, state, municipal, park, county, sanitary district, school and government. In other words, while each average gas consumer in Chicago is paying about $45.12 this year for gas, he is paying therein more than $2.25 for taxes. The gas company stockholders do not insist upon paying taxes on their property. They permit the gas consumers to do it.

Another outstanding item in the exhibits totaled $2,645,155, which the company claimed has been added to the value of the property since the present gas rate was decreed. The company asked and figured a return on that increase, but it was not new money furnished by the stockholders of the company. It was cash obtained from the gas consumers. Donald R. Richberg, attorney for the city, threw some light, by his questions, on this and other items. The company did not explain why the gas consumers shall both supply the money to increase the valuation of the property and then pay a return upon that increased valuation in the gas rate.

Bahai's Mourn Leader's Death

ABDUL BAHÁ

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Abdul Baha Abbas, leader of the Bahai movement, died at Haifa, Syria, Monday, according to a dispatch to the London Times.

Abdul Baha, "servant of God," was in Chicago in 1912, the guest of the large congregation of Bahais here. On May 1 he dedicated the site at the Sheridan road bridge in Wilmette where the Bahais now are building a temple costing several millions, to be the world center of Bahaiism.

Abdul Baha was born in Teheran, Persia. He was the successor of the Bab, "gateway of knowledge," who began about 1844 proclaiming throughout Islam the coming of a messenger of God and made much headway until executed at the age of 31. The noble father of Abdul Baha was Mirza Hosein Ali of Nour, a disciple of the Bab. Father and son were banished in 1868 to Akka, a prison city in Syria. Forty years later the Young Turks overthrew the despotic regime in Constantinople, and Abdul Baha was freed.

DEALERS BACK OF EGG CORNER NAMED TO POOLE

Names of twelve men who have pooled their funds to aid in the alleged corner of the storage egg market were given to City Food Expert Poole yesterday by commission men with whom corner of the market was held, according to Mr. Poole, whose report to Ald. Sheldon W. Govier of the council H. of L. committee last night said that the operations of the twelve—and perhaps others interested in the corner—are being carried out on the Chicago mercantile exchange by three brokers.

Market Hits Top.
By buying and selling storage eggs among themselves these men managed to boost the price of eggs another quarter of a cent yesterday, Mr. Poole said. "The market hit 42½ cents, the top thus far."
"As the result of the work of my investigators today I am able to state positively that storage eggs were offered by certain commission men yesterday at 2 and 3 cents less than the market price on condition that all eggs purchased at the lower price would be sent out of Chicago."
"I am also able to state that fresh eggs are being withheld from the market by brokers interested in the corner. With storage eggs at 42½ cents and fresh eggs at 50 cents and

Mr. Insull has taken for his topic "The Production and Distribution of Electric Energy in the Central Portion of the Mississippi Valley."

51 cents, the tendency is to buy fresh eggs, thus weakening the position of those interested in the corner."
Tells of Big Profit.
One commission man in Mr. Poole's office yesterday frankly admitted that he sold eggs yesterday at 42 cents which he put in storage last April at 24 cents. He has twelve cars of these eggs still in storage, he said.
Figuring 2 cents for storage, carrying charges and insurance, 4 cents for recandling and 2 cents for profit, these 24 cent eggs should go to the retailer at 32 cents, according to Mr. Poole.
"The men who are robbing the consumer by boosting the price are selling twenty, thirty, and even fifty carloads of storage eggs a day to each other," Mr. Poole declared.

PROMOTION HEAD WILL TALK TO MEDILL SCHOOL

Young men and women who want the facts about one of the less crowded and highly remunerative business fields are likely to hear something to their advantage this evening when Leonard R. Brooks lectures at the Joseph Medill School of Journalism of Northwestern university on "Harmony in the Workshop."
He is promotion manager—a new calling—of the Chicago Evening American and his contention is that no great newspaper ever stays great unless it has men and women in charge of its business affairs just as shrewd, far-sighted, energetic, and highly trained as those directing the editorial end. He says this "publisher material," as he calls it, is hard to find and greatly valued when found, and he thinks schools of journalism ought to train business executives for newspapers with just as much care as they train reporters and editorial writers.
Mr. Brooks' lecture, as are all Medill school lectures, will be open to the public and will be delivered in Booth hall at the university's loop headquarters, 31 West Lake street, at 8:15 o'clock.

LOSE $1,000,000 LOAN BY IGNORING LANDIS PAY SCALE

A $1,000,000 apartment project loan was canceled yesterday because the builders would not agree to enforce the Landis wage award.

This was the first bombshell thrown by banking circles into the building industry wage turmoil since the award was handed down. If adhered to by all the city's financial institutions only those building projects where the Landis award is enforced can be financed, it is asserted. This will mean a virtual standstill in building unless labor complies.

Plumbers Urge Compliance.
Members of the arbitration board of the Master Plumbers' association met with the citizens' committee, formed to enforce the Landis award, yesterday and agreed to use their influence to have both their organization and the Journeymen Plumbers' union rescind the $1.10 per hour wage agreement under which the plumbers are now working in favor of 95 cents an hour, awarded by Judge Landis. A reply will be sent to the committee Monday.

Contractors Are Insured.
The committee also announced the signing of a mammoth blanket insurance policy running into millions.

Under its provisions every contractor operating under the terms of the Landis award is insured for $25,000.

THREATEN TO CITE HOOL

Contempt proceedings will be instituted against James A. Hool and other members of the Hool Realty company. It was announced yesterday at the Dalley commission hearing, unless the books and records of the firm and those of the National First Mortgage Bond company, of which Hool is vice president, are turned over to the commission within a week.

After one of the stormiest sessions the commission has ever held, Special Counsel Joseph B. Fleming was ordered to prepare contempt charges against Hool unless he made answer within a week to the subpoenas served on him several days ago.

The attitude of the real estate man and his special counsel, Ross C. Hall, when he appeared before the commission was construed as a defiance of the legislative investigating body's authority when they flatly refused to produce the records of certain deals asked for by the commission.

In refusing to produce the books, Attorney Hall declared that his client was being singled out by the commission and demanded that the commission examine into the methods of other mortgage banking concerns.

MAIL ROBBER FOUND GUILTY.
Joseph Murphy, 1025 Fowler street, was found guilty of robbery before Judge Carpenter yesterday. With George Graves and Walter Grady, who already serving terms, he robbed the drug store and postal substation of Wolf Z. Feisher, 1701 West Grand avenue Jan. 21, 1921.

Why Your Tiny Wrist Watch Refuses to Keep Time?

A TINY wrist watch that will not keep time is an expensive piece of jewelry. It soon doubles its cost in repairs. It vexes you every time you look at it.

It probably was built abroad—for show, not for service. It was much cheaper than a Waltham. You didn't know that the smaller a watch, the more it costs to make. Greater skill, greater care, if it was made to keep time.

How should you know? You're not a watch-maker. But no watch is better than its "works." And fine features do not always make fine birds—at least, not in watches.

You can buy exquisite Waltham Wrist Watches, the works of which are smaller than a dime. They are built to keep time, as long as you live. Of course, they cost more. We've told you why. But they soon save the extra cost in repair bills wasted on watches made for show.

Ask your jeweler. He knows Waltham Watches.

Write for a valuable booklet that is a liberal "Watch" education. Sent free upon request. The Waltham Watch Company, Crescent Street, Waltham, Mass.

4 MEN HELD IN $625,000 BONDS FOR 174 THEFTS

Four men, confessing 174 robberies within the last four months, were yesterday held to the grand jury in $625,000 bonds to answer to four of their crimes.

One of them, George Wittenbrink, a Checker Cab company driver, admitted he had used his cab to carry the bandit gang about the city that promising places for burglaries and other thefts might be located.

The quartet—with one other member of the band now dead—undertook to hold up the cigar store of Daniel Mahoney, 5359 West Madison street on Thanksgiving eve.

Surprised by Detectives. They walked into a squad of detectives who were raiding the place. In the ensuing chase and gun battle two of their number were wounded, one fatally.

Wittenbrink was held in $25,000 bonds on each of the four charges. The others, John and Edward Kill and Edward Corlies, were held in $50,000 bonds for each offense. The hearing was before Judge John R. Newcomer of the South Clark street court. After the hearing the bandits went to the county jail.

Capture Four in Battle. In a fusillade of gunfire which aroused residents for blocks along the north shore, Sergts. Charles Sweeney and Thomas Slattery of the Rogers Park station early yesterday captured four men in the act of robbing the fur store of Isadore Gulickovsky, 1650 Howard street.

Sweeney and Slattery were patrolling the district when Gulickovsky ran up and reported the burglary was taking place. As the policemen got to the shop four men burst from the rear and ran down the street, firing at the policemen. After more than a score of shots had been exchanged Slattery corralled one pair. Five minutes later Sweeney got the others.

They gave their names as Frank Le Mont, 628 South Marshfield avenue; Ernest Boniciri, 4811 West Harrison street; Clyde H. Brown, 5 West Chicago avenue, and Jack Riley, 1 West Huron street.

ALDERMEN AND BLAIR TO CONFER ON CAR SERVICE

In defiance of the advice and practice of the Lundin-Thompson city administration, an aldermanic subcommittee will confer at 11 a. m. today with Henry A. Blair, president of the Chicago Surface Lines, in an attempt to better street car transportation.

On several occasions the city law department has advised the aldermen not to try to better service by direct dealing with the traction companies. Such action might be used as evidence the city has acquiesced in the breaking of the 5 cent fare provision of the 1907 ordinance, the law department held.

"Don't deal with the contract breakers," has been the department's advice. The committee is composed of Ald. James B. Bowler, chairman, and Ald. Shaffer and Ald. Mulcahy.

"We are going to try to work out a plan of cooperation between the surface lines and the city council," Ald. Bowler said. "We will ask for more cars on certain lines and trailers on others. If we fail we will take our plea to the Illinois commerce commission."

800 Attend Banquet and Ball of Showman's League Eight hundred persons attended the annual banquet and ball of the Showman's League of America at the Sherman hotel last night. Speakers were Ed Carruthers, J. W. Russwurm, Thomas Johnson, and Larry Boyd.

Two Capable Advertising Agency Men Wanted

DESIRABLE positions offering exceptional opportunities for advancement in a sound, steadily growing agency await the two men who fill these qualifications.

Copy Man

His past work must prove that he is capable of writing exceptionally strong copy over a wide range of accounts. It must measure up to a high standard of good writing, strong selling, sound advertising. This man must be resourceful in ideas and have a solid grasp of merchandising principles.

For the right man, there is a clear path to a definite position as copy chief.

The connection is in every way desirable. The agency is expanding steadily and soundly on the basis of capable and earnest service to clients.

Only matured men, trained in agency practice, will be considered. Starting salaries will be determined by ability. Apply by letter, giving full details, and accompany it if possible with a few representative samples of your work.

Contact Man

This position demands the personality and aggressive spirit of a salesman. This man will function primarily as a service man on a group of good accounts of medium size. He must therefore be thoroughly competent as an advertising craftsman—a graduate of the creative end of the business. He must be able to direct and supplement the resources of the organization toward giving accounts exceptional service. The opportunity is obvious.

JURY CONVICTS A GRANDFATHER OF SERIOUS CRIME

Thinking, possibly, of their own daughters at home, a jury in Judge Jacob Hopkins' court yesterday found George N. Thurn, 67 years old and a grandfather, of 2610 Florence avenue, guilty of a serious crime against 10 year old Bertha Kiel, 1615 Columbia avenue.

For the last eighteen months the child had taken piano lessons of Thurn. Last May, the trial brought out, he began taking liberties with her. Bertha told her father, William Kiel, of his actions.

CROWE RENEWS BATTLE TO SAVE O'MALLEY TODAY

For the fourth time since he began his struggle with the city hall to keep the lid on vice and gambling, State's Attorney Crowe will invade the stronghold of the Lundin-Thompson organization today, appearing before the police trial board in defense of Sergt. Thomas O'Malley.

It was O'Malley's suspension after he had obeyed orders of Mr. Crowe and refused to report to Chief Fitzmorris concerning gambling raids, which formed the issue on which Mr. Crowe broke with the city hall.

showdown "so that the public may know whether the city administration is going to line up with the underworld or on the side of law enforcement." The trial is expected to be brief. The decision, friends of both Crowe and Fitzmorris agree, will indicate the attitude of Mayor Thompson toward the war between the chief and the state's attorney.

Swiss Visa No Longer Needed on U. S. Passports

BANKER WARNS LABOR PAY MUST SUFFER SLASH

A rebuke and a warning to that element of labor which combats adjustment of wages in keeping with general readjustment in business and industry was sounded by Thomas B. McAdams, president of the American Bankers' association, last night at the annual dinner of the Bankers Club of Chicago. "If this country is to regain prosperity we must have lower transportation rates," he said. "If rates are to be reduced, it must come from those who got the increase and these were the workers. The railroad worker must realize he cannot continue on a war basis when everything and everybody else is coming down. Yet we have been treated to the audacity of this element of labor threatening to paralyze the business of the country if anyone dared to suggest further reduction of wages. They must be brought to realize that the public must be treated fairly."

Important Changes in the November Chicago Telephone Directory

To Telephone Users:

It is the policy of the Bell System to study improvements in methods and apparatus which make for better telephone service.

In accordance with this plan the Illinois Bell Telephone Company is preparing to introduce machine switching equipment in Chicago.

During the period when this change is being made the company respectfully requests the co-operation of the public toward the successful carrying out of this improvement.

The machine switching telephone will be similar to the present one, except that each telephone instrument will be equipped with a dial. By the use of this dial subscribers in machine switching districts can call any subscriber in the Chicago exchange by dialing the telephone number.

The requirements of this new system are such that it will be necessary to dial the first three letters of the central office name and a number consisting of four numerals. This makes it necessary to change the style of listing subscribers' numbers and in some cases the number itself.

A further change, not because of machine switching, has been made in the style of listing subscribers' names in order to facilitate finding the subscribers' names in the directory.

That subscribers may become accustomed to this new form of listing before the introduction of machine switching, the following three changes appear in the November issue of the Chicago Telephone Directory, which is being distributed:

1. The first three letters of all city central office names have been printed in black face capitals and separated by a small space from the other letters of the name.
2. Numbers having less than four numerals (those below 1000) have been changed by prefixing zeros (00); for example—"Edgewater 48" has been changed to "EDG wtr 0048."
3. All surnames and first names of firms and corporations are printed in capitals.

The following is an example of the new form of listing in the November directory:

SMITH see also Smyth Smythe
A B gar 2500 N Halsted... DIV rsy-0002
A C ofc 111 W Wash..... MAI n-7000

2200 N Clark..... DIV rsy-0017
whse 4800 N Clark..... EDG wtr-0048

How the Change Will Affect You

The capitalization of the first three letters will make no difference in the pronunciation of the central office name. Subscribers should continue to pronounce central office names in full exactly as they do now when asking the operator for a number. For example—"EDG wtr" should be pronounced "Edgewater" as heretofore.

For the present, the only changes in telephone usage will be that where zeros have been introduced, they form part of the number, and it will be necessary for subscribers, in giving such numbers to an operator or any other person, to include all zeros in the order in which they appear as part of the number.

The following examples show some of the changes in the listings and the manner in which the numbers should be given to the operator or any other person:

LAK wv 0300 say "Lake View Oh Three-Hundred"
EDG wtr 0048 "Edgewater Oh Oh-Four Eight"
MAI n 7000 "Main Seven Thousand"
FRA nkin 7700 "Franklin Seven Seven-Hundred"
MAI n 7015 "Main Seven Oh-One Five"
FRA nkin 2286 "Franklin Two Two-Eight Six"

The third change in listing, that of printing all surnames and first names of firms and corporations in capitals, was made to facilitate the finding of names. The names of all subscribers with the same surname appear without repeating the surnames unless the listings require more than one column, in which case the surname is repeated at the head of each column.

Where two or more subscribers have not only the same surname, as, for instance, "Smith," but also the same given name and initials, as "John E.," then the names are arranged, first, according to street address, the streets being taken in alphabetical order, and, secondly, where both addresses are on the same street, then the addresses are given in numerical order. When subscribers have two or more listings, the given name or initials are not repeated. The listings following the first are slightly indented to the right.

The first office to be changed to the machine switching system will be "Central," which will be sometime next year. "State" office will be changed a few months later.

The subscribers to be served from the machine switching offices will be given thorough personal instructions in the use of this equipment before the new system is put into service.

CHICAGO HORSES TAKE HONORS AT LIVE STOCK SHOW

Army Polo Team Wins Third Game.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Edward Morris' entry won first in the three-gaited saddle class at last night's horse show, where more than 20,000 spectators were packed in the seats and boxes, making a total attendance of 25,000 people at the fifth day of the International Live Stock exposition. Dink Stover, another Chicago horse, owned by J. K. Dering of Cedar Crest Farm, placed second, tussling with More Gold, one of the stars of the Long stable at Kansas City.

Another scramble with the Long string came when Tiger Rose, owned by Mrs. Louisa Long Combs and ridden by Lon Hayden, took first in the five-gaited class. Second place went to Emma Evans, entered by George Boles of Oklahoma, and Frank Flynn's Autumn Vine, a Chicago product, took third.

Temptation and Revelation won first for the Long stable in the harness horse class. Lord Brilliant and Lady Warwick, entered by John R. Thompson, Chicago, captured second place.

Army Wins in Polo Again. Long, sweeping swings of the mallet to the tune of 12 to 4 enabled the Reds of the Army Freebooters to win the third game in the championship polo match last night, defeating the Blues of the Onwentala team for the second time. The North Shore Polo and Hunt club lost in the game with the Booters Tuesday night. The Army trio has not lost a game. The North Shore team has one game to its credit, defeating the Onwentala boys Monday night.

The tandem pony class last night was an international contest between Chicago stables and an English string, prize winners at the recent New York show. Both first and second prizes went to Chicago stables. Bouncing Bantam and Malana, owned by William E. Dee, won first, and J. K. Dering's Belle Southworth and Hawthorne Syph took second.

Mrs. Combs Victor Again. In a three sided contest in the harness horse class, driven by ladies, Mrs. Louisa Long Combs, driving Temptation, her favorite, won first place, O. W. Lehmann's Royal Connaught, second, and Lady Warwick, an entry from the Thompson stable, placed third. St. Mesrob, owned by G. J. Peck, Winchester, Ill., was given first in the trotters' class, and May Aubrey, owned by Quisenberry & Swathwaite, Hamilton, Mo., took second.

Mrs. J. H. Ferguson of Gypsum, Kan., covered with ribbons that represented a few of her winnings with her herd of Red Poll cattle, headed the fat stock parade in the arena last night. While women have headed processions of many kinds, it is said that Mrs. Ferguson is the first to lead the live stock parade at the International. She led her four year old bull, Franklin

No. 8460, winner of many blues, including the state grand championship of Kansas last year.

Ribbons for Stock. Scrapping for blue ribbons in the live stock judging arena was truly an international battle in the day. More than one of the Clydesdale horses entered yesterday were from Canada. Both the senior champion and the reserve champion Clydesdale titles went to dominion breeders. In the grain and hay show Canada also made a good showing. The Duke of Southernland won an award with a sample of alfalfa hay from his ranch at Brooks, Alberta. All of the other prizes went to United States growers. The take also was a prize on his sample of red spring wheat. The Duchess of Southernland won a prize in the wheat classes.

The Hooster farmers lost the grand sweepstakes in the corn division. J. W. Workman of Maxwell, Ill., was crowned corn king of the world yesterday afternoon, winning in competition with more than 1,500 of the best samples of corn in the country. The queen of this year's International, Lucia Mayflower, the barley fed heifer from California, tipped the scales yesterday at 1,240 pounds. She will be sold under the hammer at 3 o'clock this morning in front of the Live Stock Exchange building, Union stockyards. The highest price ever paid for a grand champion was $2.45 on the hoof.

Actual Facts on Home Building Costs

LUMBER is the most economical building material. It lends itself readily to distinctive architectural design, and, when properly used, LUMBER LASTS.

What is more, there is plenty of lumber. Lumber, if used without waste, will be available for years to come at comparatively low cost.

Of course the nation's timber supply must be conservatively used, but there is no reason why LUMBER should not continue to be, for our great grandchildren, what it was for our grandfathers—THE HOME BUILDER'S FAVORITE.

SKETCHED above is an attractive small house built in a typical American midwest community. This house in November, 1921 (exclusive of heating and plumbing), constructed of various materials, cost:

Frame with wood siding	$4080.00
Frame with cement stucco on wood lath	4177.00
Frame with cement stucco on metal lath	4213.00
Stucco on hollow tile	4627.00
Common brick (solid)	4717.00
Common brick with face brick front	5007.00

The cost of the interior construction—windows, doors, floors, partitions, trim, etc.—for this house remains constant regardless of the character of outside walls, but slight changes in detail of exterior finish are required to suit different materials slightly affecting cost. The cost of various materials when used for the enclosing walls is:

Type	Cost	Increase over Frame with Wood Siding	Percentage of total Building Cost
Frame with wood siding	$ 656.00		16 per cent
Frame with cement stucco on wood lath	709.00	8 per cent	17 per cent
Frame with cement stucco on metal lath	745.00	14 per cent	18 per cent
Stucco on hollow tile	1064.00	62 per cent	23 per cent
Common brick (solid)	1186.00	81 per cent	25 per cent
Common brick with face brick front	1436.00	119 per cent	29 per cent

RED FABER UNDER KNIFE TO RELIEVE INJURED KNEE

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

Urban (Red) Faber, one half of Kid Gleason's two-man pitching staff, underwent an operation at Mercy hospital yesterday and for the next few weeks the big fellow's fate as a pitcher will hang in the balance. The operation was performed by Dr. Philip H. Kreuschner, who said that he had removed the internal semilunar cartilage from the right knee.

Red put the knee on the bum (TRIBUNE Photo.) when he slipped while fielding a batted ball in the recent city series. The knee had bothered him previous to that, but the ailment was not considered serious. After the city series mishap Red was unable to straighten the leg until after a week in the hospital, where surgeons found the locked knee was caused by the cartilage being caught between the bones.

Walks with Limp. After leaving the hospital the star hurler found it impossible to walk without a limp. He figured that time would correct the ailment, but when he failed to notice any improvement the operation was decided upon.

Last night Dr. Kreuschner said there was every indication of the operation being successful, but this will not be known to a certainty until Red attempts to pitch. A right handed hurler pivots on his right foot and the knee is subjected to a severe strain. That is what makes it a serious matter for Red.

Same Operation for Roth. Bobby Roth, the Yankee outfielder, will undergo a similar operation at Mercy hospital next Monday. He injured his right knee during the past season. He will have a room adjoining that occupied by Faber.

W. AND J. PLAYS FINAL DRILL FOR DETROIT U. GAME

Washington, Pa., Nov. 30.—Washington and Jefferson's undefeated football team held its final practice today preparatory to leaving tomorrow for Detroit to play the University of Detroit eleven. Yesterday the team held its first practice since the Thanksgiving day victory over West Virginia. Coach Neale expects to take two full elevens.

BIERCE OF AKRON PROVES STAR END

Few college football players improve their game after enrolling in the professional ranks, but "Scotty" Bierce of Akron university is an exception. Bierce, who will play end with the Akron Indians next Sunday against Chicago Cardinals at Normal park, was a rather raw player when he joined the Indians, but since then he has developed into one of the greatest all-around ends in the professional league.

Staleys Drill to Break Up Buffalo Pass Attack

If the Staleys can break up Buffalo's forward pass attack Sunday at Culpeper they are confident they will capture the national "pro" gridiron title. The Buffalo All-Americans have perfected the passing game to a high degree, using an effective screen that is most baffling.

No less than seven of the Buffalo regulars and subs are expert on catching passes, a sub half back named Kuehle, formerly from Dubuque, making the play that defeated the Staleys Thanksgiving day. Tickets for Sunday's game go on sale this morning at Wilson's.

ROPER WANTS BOUT WITH TOM GIBBONS

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Having disposed of a number of heavyweights by the K. O. route, Bob Roper, light heavyweight under the management of Eddie Long, has requested his manager to match him with Tom Gibbons and throw the match open for the highest bidder.

Roper turned this bit of information loose yesterday when he returned from Memphis, where he disposed of "Wild Bill" Reed in the fourth round last Monday night.

The fighter asserted he has beaten ties will be severed long enough to permit the pair to settle the question of supremacy, according to Manager Long.

"Bob is anxious to meet Carpenter and he figures his only chance to beat Gibbons. He has gained so much confidence as a result of his recent fights that he is willing to take the chance."

Tommy Comiskey, St. Paul welterweight, under the management of Eddie Long, will leave this morning for LaSalle, where he will meet Arnold Downey of Columbus in a ten round bout tonight.

Moore Not to Box Tremaine

At the request of Promoter Mulken of Milwaukee, who will conduct the ten round no decision contest between Johnny Buff, bantamweight and flyweight champion, and Pat Moore on Dec. 15, the local fighter yesterday called off his eight round bout with Carl Tremaine of Cleveland at Memphis on Monday night. Promoter Mulken wants both boys to be in the pink when they enter the ring, and Harry Hockstader, manager of Moore, readily agreed to the cancellation. Moore is training at the Arcade gym.

Bill Tate, former sparring partner of Jack Dempsey who will meet Harry Willis for the colored heavy weight championship at Denver on Dec. 8, will leave for the battle ground on Sunday. Kid Howard will second Tate in this fight.

Schurz Eleven to Play Murphysboro Team Dec. 10

Negotiations for a post-season football game between Schurz and Murphysboro, Ill., High, were completed yesterday, according to Schurz athletic officials. The game will be played Dec. 10 at Murphysboro.

"ECKIE" MURPHY

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 30.—(Special.)—Edgar ("Eckie") Murphy of Chicago, a junior in civil engineering, tonight was elected captain of the 1922 Purdue football team. The election took place at a banquet in the team's honor by 200 business men. Murphy made a great name in sports at Hyde Park High school. He plays the quarterback back position. Fourteen "P" letters were given out at the meeting to the following men: Capt. Carmen, Meeker, Kerr, Hans, Gieger, Claypool, Macklin, Watson, Merrill, Swank, Wagner, Spencer, Murphy, and Burk.

IOWA RECEIVES UNOFFICIAL BID FOR COAST GAME

Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 30.—William Duffield of Los Angeles, Cal., president of the University of Iowa alumni in California and unofficial representative of the tournament of roses committee of Pasadena, last night tendered an informal invitation to Iowa to be the opponent of California in the New Year's day game. He declared that Iowa was first choice in the west for the contest and hoped Iowa would accept. He stated, however, that his invitation was not a formal one.

East Lansing, Mich., Nov. 30.—W. H. Johnson of Newberry, N.Y., was today chosen captain of the Michigan Agricultural college football team for 1922. Johnson played last year.

JONES-RICHARDS ROW MYTH, BOTH MEN SAY

PURPLE TO PLAY ILLINOIS!

NORTHWESTERN university officials announced last night that arrangements are practically completed for a two year home and home football series with University of Illinois. The first game, according to present plans, is to be played at Urbana next year.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 30.—(Special.)—The rumors which have floated around Madison concerning a break between Tom Jones, director of athletics, and Football Coach Richards, today were emphatically denied by both men, who are incensed over the attitude taken in the circulation of the rumor.

That minor differences had existed between the two men was denied by neither, but they asserted that they had been amicably adjusted and that at no time had either, intimidated Richards' resignation.

Coach Richards said last night: "I intend to coach football next fall and as long as I am able. I have never presented nor intended presenting my resignation." Coach Jones said: "We have worked together for five years and I see no reason why we should not continue to do so for five years more."

The rumors probably grew out of a secret meeting of the football team last Monday. Guy Sundt, captain of the team, stated that the meeting had no intention of airing trouble between Richards and Jones, but that they merely wanted to assure Coach Richards that the team wanted him back next fall and were strong for him.

Hold Amateur Bouts at Ferretti's Gym Tonight

SPORTS through Edgren's EYES

BY ROBERT EDGREN.

THERE is talk in New York of possible action in boxing and wrestling by state officials, caused by "war" among promoters.

If this ever comes about it will be the fault of certain trouble making individuals, jealous of the success of men with more brains, energy, and enterprise than they themselves have.

For many years boxing has suffered through the playing of politics in making appointments, and through the dishonesty of boxing commissioners and promoters alike.

It should be possible, in a state like New York, to find a few honest men interested in the sport. It has been done, of course, but honesty isn't the only requirement. The sport should be governed by honest men with reputations to uphold, fearless in enforcing honesty and punishing dishonesty, with a knowledge of conditions and at least as much ability as a man might need to make a success of digging ditches.

"If the governor of New York tries to get out from under"—to kill boxing because of the possible political effect of petty squabbling indulged in by a few insignificant people who have horne their way into the sport—then the governor will be tacitly admitting that he isn't big enough to handle a very small situation, that he is unable to find among his constituents half a dozen men both honest and capable enough to do the work of administration called for by a fair and plain law.

"The Wrestling Trust."

As for wrestling—for a good many years the sport has been controlled nearly all over the country by a group of professional promoters, usually called the "wrestling trust." Wrestlers have been forced to wrestle "to order." That is, to take their bouts according to schedules arranged at headquarters.

The wrestling trust, like other trusts, has no soul. What it wants is the coin, and it doesn't care how it gets it. Lately there has been some disposition on the part of the people not controlled by the trust to try to hire well known wrestlers and run wrestling matches on the level.

Naturally, the trust resents this interference with "business." Every thing possible has been done to discredit promoters who are not in the trust. The boomerang effect of this is likely to be complete barring of wrestling matches in New York state—just as certain faking promoters have been barred from conducting any matches in Chicago in recent years.

Like any other sport, wrestling is all right in itself. Unfortunately, any professional sport that is exciting and interesting enough to draw crowds to the gate usually falls into the hands of crooked promoters sooner or later. That is what has happened to wrestling.

Strict and efficient control by state authorities would clear the crooks out. It would take a little time and some effort, but it can be done.

A New Billiard Marvel.

The magnificent playing of young Jake Schaefer in the international billiard tournament at Chicago shows that Willie Hoppe at last has a rival who will give him a battle any time they meet.

Schaefer, a youngster breaking world's records that have stood for many years, is just such a figure in billiards as Willie Hoppe was when he appeared. Only when Hoppe began winning championships and cracking records he was so young that he had to stand on a box to reach the table.

Hoppe has had a remarkable career as a champion, and isn't anywhere near the end of it. But no champion ever was so good that his record performances couldn't be bettered.

Your trip is rendered doubly delightful by the luxurious appointments, tempting cuisine, and easy-riding road bed. And, thanks to oil-burning locomotives which eliminate soot and cinders, you enjoy through open windows the wonderful scenery of this land of history and romance.

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

The grain market was inclined to put a very bullish construction on the Cleveland-Curtis-Goodman report, which showed a condition for winter wheat of 77, compared with 87.9 of a year ago and a ten year average of 88.4, and was the lowest ever reported at this season of the year. In 1909 the Dec. 1 condition was 81.4, the lowest heretofore, and the final yield per acre in 1909 was 11.8 bu. per acre, the smallest known, with three exceptions.

On the basis of an average loss of acreage due to winter killing, the report suggested a yield of around 475,000,000 bu. compared with 544,000,000 bu. harvested this year.

In commenting on the value of the Dec. 1 winter wheat estimate the department of agriculture some years ago called attention to the fact that based on an average for twenty years, the higher the condition in December the better the final yield, while the lower the condition the more certain it was that the returns would be smaller.

Average abandonment of acreage for the seven years of highest condition was 6.8 per cent of the total sown, while for the seven years of lowest average it was 14.7 per cent.

Goats among wheat traders was decidedly bullish after the close, and it was noticeable that some commission houses that have recently been taking a little bearish were anticipating a further upturn. It was the general comment that as long as dry weather continued in the southwest and the reports as to the crop in Argentina and Austria were conflicting breaks would be short lived.

In some quarters the belief was expressed that export business in domestic wheat was no longer a factor to be considered as far as a price making influence was concerned, and that with the close adjustment of the world's supply to demand that increased attention would be paid to the condition of the growing crop in this country and in Europe.

The latter has been complaining of dry weather of late. The average rainfall in the American southwest in November is said to have been the smallest, with one exception, in thirty-three years.

Conservative traders were inclined to advocate caution on the buying side of wheat on the bulge, believing that the outside trade was not sufficiently large to permit advances of more than a few days without the market becoming overbought.

RUSSIAN GIRL, ILL, OUT OF JOB, GETS CHEERFUL $1,000

Men and Women from All Nations Winners.

From Greenland's icy mountains to south Halsted street; from India's coral strand to North Clark street, Russians, Croatians, Norwegians, Italians, Czechoslovaks, they formed an international line at THE TRIBUNE plant, 431 North Michigan avenue all day yesterday to receive their cash awards for Cheer Checks.

Russia claimed the highest prize, a $1,000 bill, which went to Bessie Rocklin, 2618 Crystal street, who made her way from White Russia six years ago. Bessie worked on men's neckwear sewing and cutting; cutting and sewing. Then she became ill, had an operation, and she worried. When she went back to her job she couldn't work so fast. It wasn't long before she was sick again but she had no money so she kept on working until the shop closed down. She's been out of work for more than six months.

Her Need Plainly Shown.
Her scared reverence of the money, her frail body, her rain-soaked hat and shabby dress, tell more than words how much she appreciates and needs the money.

Real American is Fred J. Frank, 2841 South Kedvale avenue, motorman on a Douglas park elevated train. He left this Tribune with $500 and hungry. It happened this way. Returning home from an early morning run, he sat down to eat, knife in one hand, fork in the other, a Wednesday Tribune propped up in front of him. At the second mouthful he saw he had won $500. Before he could have taken the third he was on the way down to cash his check. "Edna, aged 11; Dora, aged 3, and the missus need lots of things."

Scandinavia Is Represented.
Of Scandinavian descent is Arthur E. Carlstone, 5065 Catalpa avenue, another $500 winner. He will give it all to his family.

Merrill England's merry American son, Robert Stanley, 7312 Coles avenue, appeared in a Lane High school sweater to claim the $25 which he is to divide with his two brothers.

An Anglo-French alliance was effected when Leonard Allie, 2944 Arch street, pocketed $5. It will buy him a pair of shoes.

"This never happened to me back home in Greece," said Joseph Vanzane, 927 Cambridge avenue, a 17 year old lad, who won $100. Joseph is out of work.

A representative of Denmark appeared in the person of Miss Alta Nielsen, 2336 North Maplewood avenue, stenographer, who will give her $10 to Good Fellow work.

Goals for Flanée's Ring.
Charles Malpede, 1248 McAllister avenue, Italian, took his $5 and said: "This goes for the first payment on my girl's diamond ring." Another Italian, Mary Martino, 611 West Oak street, believes in equal rights. With a part of her $10 she's going to purchase a marriage license.

Stanley Hansen, Swedish, 6955 East End avenue, won $50. The money is welcome, for Stanley's father is trying to keep nine children in school.

Charles Drake, 1126 East 56th street, representing a triple entente of English, Irish, and French ancestry, won $10. His mother is a widow. She is working extra time at night so Charles can finish school. The prize goes to her.

Arrested While Eating
Loaf of Bread He Stole
Joseph Novak yesterday was arrested yesterday after he had broken into a grocery store at 2150 West 18th street and was found seated on a box, munching a loaf of bread. He is an ex-soldier out of employment. Hunger, he said, drove him to desperation. He was held to the grand jury in $5,000 bonds.

TRAIN KILLS GRAND HAVEN MAN.
Grand Haven, Mich., Nov. 30.—(Special.)—John Vyn, a business man of Grand Haven, was instantly killed today when he was struck by a train on the Grand Haven railway. He was riding in an automobile.

DELIVERY MAN DROPS DEAD.
Reuben Peterson of 901 Lake street, a delivery man, dropped dead yesterday while working. Heart disease is thought to have been the cause of his death.

Beginning today and continuing until Christmas, hours for business will be 8:30 A.M. to 6 P.M.

CHINESE ORACLE LUCK'S ENVOY IN CHEER DRAWING

Toro Invokes East's
Best Tradition.

In public and a blindfolded outsider extracts the fortunate numbers."

Winners Coming In.
Meanwhile holders of winning numbers are gathering in their easy money.

A prize of $1,000 was collected yesterday by a young girl, a maker of neckties, who had been out of employment for weeks and financially was in almost desperate circumstances. Lady Luck flashed her a ravishing smile.

A motorman on the Douglas Park elevated, Fred J. Frank, thumbed his coupons and found a $500 cluster of gold nuggets on one number. And so it went.

The $5,000 grand prize has no claimant yet. Somewhere, somebody has the lucky ticket, for the coupons for all prize winning numbers have left the office and been distributed. Look your coupons over carefully.

Extra Thousand Today.
For the sixth day's drawing, your servant, Sig. Toro, the distinguished authority on these affairs, has arranged a unique ceremony. It will be held in the courtyard of THE TRIBUNE plant, at the Michigan avenue "link" bridge. The drawing will start at 7 o'clock this evening. As a curtain raiser there will be a refined musical entertainment, and the cards will be drawn by—well, come and see.

Two extra prizes today. A $500 prize for the highest number drawn, and a $500 prize for the lowest number drawn—exclusive of series numbers.

G. O. P. TAX LAW
WAS A FAILURE,
SAYS DEMOCRAT

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30.—The record of the Republican party in the extra session of congress is described as a "disgraceful failure" by Representative Garrett, Tennessee, acting Democratic leader of the house, in a statement to appear in the Congressional Record tomorrow.

Mr. Garrett calls the tax law a "make-shift thing for which none should care to take responsibility." He should care to take responsibility," he said, "for the Republican cause of achievement, made by Representative Mondell, Wyoming, the party's house leader. Mr. Garrett says that all of the legislation that was good was non-partisan."

"If they have really tried to provide a tax measure which will give relief to business and to distribute taxation equitably, then they stand convicted of stupidity and utter incompetency."

TRIBUNE PRINTS 700,000 COPIES OF THIS PAPER

All Records Broken for

For the first time in the history of daily weekday journalism, there are being circulated this morning approximately 700,000 copies of a newspaper containing 34 or more pages. That record is being set by THE TRIBUNE. The size of this issue, city editions, is 34 pages.

To the layman the task of getting out such a newspaper—if he thinks about it at all—must seem an enormous one. To the initiate it is even more so. THE TRIBUNE's great new plant, despite its tremendous facilities, is extended to the utmost.

Ap Idea of the Task
It takes, for instance, about 389,000 pounds of white paper to publish THE TRIBUNE this morning—194½ tons of it. That includes—in round figures—both the 145,000 copies of the mail edition of 34 pages and the 558,000 copies of the Home and Final editions of 36 pages. If that paper were laid out in one continuous strip one page deep it would stretch for 18,375 miles—from Chicago eastward to the Pacific ocean on the coast of China.

It was necessary for the stereotyping department of THE TRIBUNE to cast more than 80,000 pounds of metal for plates for the presses.

Presses Run at Capacity.
It took the entire twenty-five units of the latest high speed presses in THE TRIBUNE's new plant and the entire twenty units in the basement of the Tribune building at Dearborn and Madison streets to do the job.

Virtually all the distributing equipment of THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE was called into action to handle this, a weekday edition, thirty-five motor trucks and sixty-five horses and wagons plying the streets with bundles of papers until long after daylight.

Prior to this week—of course the great edition was due to the popular demand for Christmas Cheer Checks—the highwater mark set by THE TRIBUNE was on Armistice day, 1918.

But then only 555,000 copies of a twenty-two page paper—requiring only 204,000 pounds of white paper—were run for distribution. That was small in comparison to today's output—and yet until last Monday morning it was the record.

Will THE TRIBUNE break this new record? We think it will. We're going after more than 800,000 circulation weekdays and more than 1,000,000 Sunday.
